In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal controls relevant to the entity's preparation of financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal controls. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

Notes to the financial statements
March 31, 2015

1. Identification and activities

Medical Disposables & Supplies Limited is a limited liability company, and was incorporated under the Laws of Jamaica on November 27, 1998.

The company's shares were listed on the Junior Market of the Jamaica Stock Exchange on December 24, 2013.

The company is domiciled in Jamaica with registered offices located at Shop # 26, The Domes, 85 Hagley Park Road, Kingston 10, Jamaica.

The main activity during the year was the sale of medical supplies.

2. Basis of preparation

Statement of compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) and comply with the relevant provisions of the Jamaican Companies Act.

3. Changes in accounting policies

i New and revised standards, interpretations and amendments to published standards effective in the current year

A number of new and revised standards, interpretations and amendments to existing standards have been published and became effective during the current financial year. Information on the new and revised standards, interpretations and amendments that are applicable to the company are presented below:

IFRIC 21Levies

IFRIC 21 clarifies that:

- the obligating event that gives rise to the liability is the activity that triggers the payment of the levy, as identified by the government's legislation. If this activity arises on a specific date within an accounting period then the entire obligation is recognised on that date

- the same recognition principles apply in the annual and interim financial statements

IFRIC 21 had no material effect on the annual financial statements but affected the allocation of the cost of certain property taxes between interim periods. The company's past practice was to spread the cost of property taxes payable annually over the year, resulting in the recognition of a prepayment at interim reporting dates. The application of IFRIC 21 requires the company to recognise the entire obligation as an expense at the due date specified in the relevant legislation.

IFRIC 21 has been applied retrospectively in accordance with its transitional provisions and had no material effect on the financial statements for the periods presented.

IAS 32 Offsetting Financial Assets and Financial liabilities

These amendments clarify the application of certain offsetting criteria in IAS 32, including:

- the meaning of 'currently has a legally enforceable right of set-off'
- the some gross settlement mechanisms may be considered equivalent to net settlement.

The amendments have been applied retrospectively in accordance with their transitional provisions. As the company does not currently present any of its financial assets and financial liabilities on a net basis using the provisions of IAS32, these amendments had no material effect on the financial statements for the periods presented.

IAS 36 Recoverable Amount Disclosures for Non-Financial Assets

These amendments clarify that an entity is required to disclose the recoverable amount of an asset (or cash generating unit) whenever an impairment loss has been recognised or reversed in the period. In addition, they introduce several new disclosures required to be made when the recoverable amount of impaired assets is based on fair values less cost of disposal, including:

- additional information about fair value measurement including the applicable level of the fair value hierarchy, and a description of any valuation techniques used and key assumptions made
- the discount rates used if fair value less cost of disposal is measured using a present value technique.

The amendments have been applied retrospectively in accordance with their transitional provisions.

ii Standards, amendments and interpretations issued but not yet effective

At the date of approval of these financial statements, certain new standards, amendments and interpretations to existing standards have been published but are not yet effective, and have not been early adopted by the company.

Management anticipates that all relevant pronouncements will be adopted in the company’s accounting policies for the first period beginning after the effective date of the pronouncement. Information on new standards, amendments and interpretations that are expected to be relevant to the company’s financial statements is provided below:

IFRS 9 Financial Instruments

The IASB aims to replace IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement (IAS 39) in its entirety with IFRS 9. To date, the chapters dealing with recognition, classification, measurement and derecognition of financial assets and liabilities have been issued. These chapters are effective for annual periods beginning January 1, 2015.

Chapters dealing with impairment methodology and hedge accounting are still being developed. Further in November 2011, the IASB tentatively decided to consider making limited modifications to IFRS 9's financial asset classification model to address application issues. The company's management has yet to assess the impact of this new standard on the company's financial statements. However, management does not expect to implement IFRS 9 until all of its chapters have been published and they can comprehensively assess the impact of all changes.

IFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers

IFRS 15 presents new requirements for the recognition of revenue, replacing IAS 18 'Revenue', IAS 11 'Construction Contracts', and several revenue-related interpretations. The new standard establishes a control-based revenue recognition model and provides additional guidance in many areas not covered in detail under existing IFRSs, including how to account for arrangements with multiple performance obligations, variable pricing, customer refund rights, supplier repurchase options, and other common complexities.

IFRS 15 is effective for reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2017. The company's management has not yet assessed the impact of IFRS 15 on these financial statements.

Annual Improvements

The Annual Improvements 2010 – 2012, 2011 – 2013 and 2012 -2014 made several minor amendments to a number of IFRSs. The Annual Improvements are effective for various periods beginning on or after January 1, 2014 to January 1, 2016. There were no material impact and management does not anticipate a material impact on the company's financial statements from these Amendments which are effective and those that are to become effective.

4. Summary of significant accounting policies

The principal accounting policies applied in the presentation of these financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

a Property, plant and equipment

(i) Carrying value

Land and buildings are recognised at fair value based on their use at the date of valuation less any subsequent impairment losses. Fair value is determined in valuations carried out by external professional valuators once every (5) years, unless market-based factors indicate a material change in fair value. Any surplus arising on revaluation of land and buildings is recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity under revaluation reserve, unless the carrying amounts of those assets had previously suffered a revaluation decrease or impairment loss which was recognised in profit or loss. To the extent that any decrease had previously been recognised in profit or loss, a revaluation increase reversing the decrease is recognised in profit or loss with the remaining part of the increase recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity under revaluation reserve.

Downward revaluations of land and buildings are recognised upon revaluation or impairment testing, with the decrease being charged to other comprehensive income to the extent of any surplus in equity relating to this asset and any remaining decrease recognised in profit or loss.

(ii) Depreciation is charged on assets from the date of acquisition.

Depreciation is provided on the straight line basis at such rates as will write off the cost of various assets over the period of their expected useful lives. The useful lives approximate to ten (10) years for furniture, fixtures and equipment, five (5) years for computers and motor vehicles, and forty (40) years for buildings.

(iii) Repairs and renewal

The costs of repairs and renewals which do not enhance the value of existing assets are written off to profit or loss as they are incurred.

b Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost, determined on the average cost basis, and net realisable value. Costs of inventory comprise cost of pharmaceuticals and supplies plus applicable charges; net realisable value is based upon estimated selling price less cost to sell.

c Revenue recognition

Revenue arises from the sale of goods. It is measured at the fair value of consideration received or receivable, excluding General Consumption Tax, trade discounts or rebates.

A sale of goods is recognised when the company has transferred to the buyer the significant risk and rewards of ownership, generally when the customer takes undisputed delivery of the goods.

d Finance and other Income

Finance and other income comprise interest earned on short-term investments and miscellaneous income. Income is recognised on the basis of agreements in place or when it has been transferred to the third parties.

e Foreign currency translation

Functional and presentation currency

The financial statements are prepared and presented in Jamaican dollars, which is the functional currency of the company.

Foreign currency translations and balances

(i) Foreign currency balances at the end of the reporting period have been translated at rates of exchange ruling at that date.

(ii) Transactions in foreign currency are converted at rates of exchange ruling at the dates of those transactions.

(iii) Gains/losses arising from fluctuations in exchange rates are included in profit or loss.

f Cash and cash equivalents

The above comprise cash on hand and demand deposits together with other short-term highly liquid investments maturing within ninety (90) days from the date of acquisition that are readily convertible in known amounts of cash and bank overdraft.

g Income tax

Income tax on the results for the year comprises current and deferred tax.

Current tax is the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the year, using the tax rate enacted at statement of financial position date, and any adjustments to tax payable in respect of previous years.

Deferred tax is accounted for using the liability method, providing for temporary differences between the carrying amount of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the corresponding basis used in the computation of taxable profit. In principle, deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable differences and deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which deductible temporary difference can be utilised.

Deferred tax is calculated at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the year when the asset is realised or the liability settled. Deferred tax is charged or credited in the Statement of Comprehensive Income, except when it is related to items credited or charged directly to equity, in which case the deferred tax is also dealt with in equity.

h Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when the company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument.

Financial assets are derecognised when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire, or when the financial asset and all substantial risks and rewards are transferred.

A financial liability is derecognised when it is extinguished, discharged, cancelled or expired.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are measured initially at fair value plus transaction costs, except for financial assets and financial liabilities carried at fair value through profit or loss, which are measured initially at fair value.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are measured subsequently as described below.

Financial assets

For the purpose of subsequent measurement, financial assets are classified into the following categories upon initial recognition:

- loans and receivables;
- financial assets at fair value through profit or loss;
- held-to-maturity investments; and
- available-for-sale financial assets.

The category determines subsequent measurement and whether any resulting income and expense is recognised in profit or loss or in other comprehensive income.

All financial assets except for those at fair value through profit or loss are subject to review for impairment at least at each reporting date. Financial assets are impaired when there is any objective evidence that a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired. Different criteria to determine impairment are applied for each category of financial assets, which are described below.

All income and expenses relating to financial assets that are recognised in profit or loss are presented within 'finance income', and 'finance costs' except for impairment of trade receivables which is presented within 'other operating expenses'.

Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. After initial recognition these are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less provision for impairment. Discounting is omitted where the effect of discounting is immaterial. The company's cash and cash equivalents, trade and most other receivables fall into this category of financial instruments.

Individually significant receivables are considered for impairment when they are past due or when other objective evidence is received that a specific counterparty will default. A provision for doubtful debt is recognised when there is an indication that the debt is impaired. Impairment of trade receivables are presented within 'other operating expenses'.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss include financial assets that are either classified as held for trading or that meet certain conditions and are designated at fair value through profit or loss upon initial recognition. None of the company's financial assets fall into this category.

Held-to-maturity investments

Held-to-maturity investments are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments and fixed maturity other than loans and receivables. Investments are classified as held-to-maturity if the company has the intention and ability to hold them until maturity. None of the company's financial assets fall into this category.

Available-for-sale financial assets

Available-for-sale financial assets are non-derivative financial assets that are either designated to this category or do not qualify for inclusion in any of the other categories of financial assets. None of the company's financial assets fall into this category.

Financial liabilities

The company's financial liabilities include borrowings and trade and other payables.

Financial liabilities are measured subsequently at amortised cost using the effective interest method, except for financial liabilities held for trading or designated at fair value through profit or loss, which are carried subsequently at fair value with gains or losses recognised in profit or loss.

All interest-related charges and, if applicable, changes in an instrument's fair value that are reported in profit or loss are included within 'finance costs' or 'finance income'.

i Owing to/(by) related parties

Amounts owing to/(by) related parties are carried at amortised cost.

j Borrowings

Borrowings comprise interest-bearing borrowings and trade and other payables and are classified as financial liabilities measured at amortised cost. They are recognised initially at fair value, being their issued proceeds net of transaction costs incurred. Subsequently, borrowings are measured at amortised cost and any difference between net proceeds and the redemption value is recognised in profit or loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method. Interest charges are recognised in the profit or loss in the period in which they occur.

k Impairment

The company's property, plant and equipment are subject to impairment testing.

For the purpose of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash flows (cash-generating units). As a result, some assets are tested individually for impairment and some are tested at cash-generating unit level.

Individual assets or cash-generating units are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable.

An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's or cash-generating unit's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of fair value, reflecting market conditions less costs to sell and value in use, based on an internal discounted cash flow evaluation. All assets are subsequently reassessed for indications that an impairment loss previously recognised may no longer exist.

l Intangible asset – computer software

Computer software are capitalised on the basis of the costs incurred to acquire and install the specific software.

All intangible assets are accounted for using the cost model whereby capitalised costs are amortised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives, as these assets are considered finite. Residual values and useful lives are reviewed at each reporting date. In addition, they are subject to impairment testing as described in note 4k. The useful lives approximate to five (5) years. The initial amortisation period will commence in the month following capitalisation.

Subsequent expenditures on the maintenance of computer software are expensed as incurred.

When an intangible asset is disposed of, the gain or loss on disposal is determined as the difference between the proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset, and is recognised in profit or loss within other income or other expenses.

m Equity, reserves and dividend payments

Share capital is determined using the par value of shares that have been issued and any premiums received on the initial issuing of shares. Any transaction costs associated with the issuing of shares are deducted from premiums received.

Revaluation reserve comprises the accumulated surplus arising on the revaluation of property, plant and equipment.

Retained profits include all current and prior period results as disclosed in the statement of comprehensive income.

Dividend distributions payable to equity shareholders are included in other liabilities when the dividends have been approved by the shareholders prior to the reporting date.

n Leases

Finance Leases

In accordance with IAS 17, the economic ownership of a leased asset is transferred to the lessee if the lessee bears substantially all the risks and rewards related to the ownership of the leased asset. The related asset is recognised at the time of inception of the lease at the fair value of the leased asset or, if lower, the present value of the lease payments plus incidental payments, if any, to be borne by the lessee. A corresponding amount is recognised as a finance leasing liability, irrespective of whether some of these lease payments are payable up-front at the date of inception of the lease.

Subsequent accounting for assets held under finance lease agreements, that is, depreciation methods and useful lives, correspond to those applied to comparable acquired assets. The corresponding finance leasing liability is reduced by lease payments less finance charges, which are expensed to finance costs. Finance charges represent a constant periodic rate of interest on the outstanding balance of the finance lease liability.

Operating Leases

All other leases are treated as operating leases. Where the company is a lessee, payments under operating leases are recognised as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Associated costs, such as maintenance and insurance, are expensed as incurred.

o Operating expenses

Operating expenses are recognised in profit or loss upon utilisation of the service or at the date of their origin. Expenditure for warranties is recognised and charged against the associated provision when the related revenue is recognised.

p Comparative information

Certain previous year figures have been restated as a result of prior year adjustments and to conform to current year's presentation.

q Significant management judgement in applying accounting policies and estimation

Use of estimates and judgements

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements. These estimates are based on historical experience and management's best knowledge of current events and actions. Actual results may differ from these estimates and assumptions.

There were no critical judgements, apart from those involving estimation, that management has made in the process of applying the company's accounting policies that have a significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements.

The estimates and assumptions which have the most significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities are discussed below.

(i) Depreciation of property, plant and equipment and amortisation of intangible assets.

Depreciation is provided so as to write down the respective assets to their residual values over their expected useful lives and, as such, the selection of the estimated useful lives and the expected residual values of the assets requires the use of estimates and judgements. Details of the estimated useful lives are as shown in Note 4(a).

(ii) Taxation

The company is required to estimate income tax payable to Tax Administration Jamaica on any profit derived from operations (Note 17). This requires an estimation of the current tax liability together with an assessment of the temporary differences which arise as a consequence of different accounting and tax treatments. These temporary differences result in deferred tax assets or liabilities which are included in the statement of financial position. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the enacted tax rate at the date of that statement of financial position.

If the tax eventually payable or recoverable differs from the amounts originally estimated then the difference will be accounted for in the accounts in the year such determination is made.

(iii) Impairment

The company assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any such indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the company makes an estimate of the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of its fair value less costs to sell and its value in use and is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. Where the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining fair value less costs to sell, an appropriate valuation model is used.

Impairment losses of continuing operations are recognised in the statement of comprehensive income in those expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired asset, except for property previously revalued where the valuation was taken to equity. In this case the impairment is also recognised in equity up to the amount of any previous revaluation.

An assessment is made at each reporting date as to whether there is any indication that previously recognised impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such indication exists, the company makes an estimate of recoverable amount. A previously recognised impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. If that is the case, the carrying amount of the asset is increased to its recoverable amount. That increased amount cannot exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. Such reversal is recognised in the statement of comprehensive income unless the asset is carried at revalued amount, in which case the reversal is treated as a revaluation increase.

26. Risk management policies

The company's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks in respect of its financial instruments: market risk (currency risk, interest rate risk and other price risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. The company seeks to manage these risks by close monitoring of each class of its financial instruments as follows:

a Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. The company is exposed to market risk through its use of financial instruments and specifically to currency risk, interest rate risk and certain other price risk, which result from both its operating and investing activities.

i Currency risk

Currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates.

The company is exposed to currency risk due to fluctuations in exchange rates on transactions and balances that are denominated in currencies other than the Jamaican Dollar. Foreign currency bank accounts denominated in United States Dollars (US$) and Great Britain pounds (£) are maintained to minimise these risks.

Foreign currency denominated financial assets and liabilities which expose the company to currency risk are described below. The amounts shown are those reported to key management translated into J$ at the closing rate.

Concentrations of currency risk

	2015 US$ J$	2014 US$ J$
Financial assets
- Cash and cash equivalents	235,164	4,539,382
	235,164	4,539,382
Financial liabilities
- Trade payables	(890,029)	(62,297,140)
- Borrowings	(300,000)	(32,784,000)
	(1,190,029)	(95,081,140)
Total liability	(954,865)	(90,541,758)

The above assets/(liabilities) are receivable/payable in United States dollars (US$) and Jamaican Dollars (J$). The exchange rates applicable at the end of the reporting period is J$114.76 to US$1 (2014 – J$109.28 to US$1).

Foreign currency sensitivity

The following table illustrates the sensitivity of the net result for the year end and equity with regards to the company's financial assets and financial liabilities and US Dollar to Jamaican (JA) Dollar exchange rate. Only movements between the Jamaican Dollar and US Dollars are considered, as these are the two major currencies of the company.

The sensitivity analysis is based on the company's United States dollar financial instruments at statement of financial position date.

Effect on results of operations:

If the JA Dollar weakens by 10% (2014 – 15%) against the US Dollar then this would have the effect of the amounts shown below on the basis that all other variables remain constant.

	Rate %	Weakens $
2015	10	(10,958,031)
2014	15	(9,024,176)

If the JA Dollar strengthens against the US Dollar by 1% (2014 – 1%) this would have the following impact:

	Rate %	Strengthens $
2015	1	1,095,803
2014	1	905,418

ii Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in market interest rates. The company's cash and cash equivalents are subject to interest rate risk. However, the company attempts to manage this risk by monitoring its interest-bearing instruments closely and procuring the most advantageous rates under contracts with interest rates that are fixed for the life of the contract, where possible.

The company invests excess cash in short-term deposits and maintains interest-earning bank accounts with licensed financial institutions. Short-term deposits are invested for three (3) months or less at fixed interest rates and are not affected by fluctuations in market interest rates up to the dates of maturity. Interest rates on interest-earning bank accounts are not fixed but are subject to fluctuations based on prevailing market rates.

Interest rate sensitivity

Interest rates on the company's short-term deposits and borrowings are fixed up to the dates of maturity and interest earned from the company's interest-earning bank accounts is immaterial. As such there would be no material impact on the results of the company's operations as a result of fluctuations in interest rates.

iii Other price risk

Other price risk is the risk that the value of a financial instrument will fluctuate as a result of changes in market prices, whether those changes are caused by factors specific to the individual instrument or its issuer or factors affecting all instruments traded in the market. The company's financial instruments are substantially independent of changes in market prices as they are short-term in nature.

b Credit risk

The company faces credit risk in respect of its receivables and cash and cash equivalents. However, this risk is controlled by close monitoring of these assets by the company. In addition, cash and cash equivalents are maintained with licensed financial institutions considered to be stable. Savings and current accounts held at commercial banks are insured under the Jamaica Deposit Insurance Scheme (JDIS). At the date of the statement of financial position a maximum of $600,000 per Commercial Bank is insured under the JDIS.

The maximum credit risk faced by the company is limited to the carrying amount of financial assets recognised at the statement of financial position date, as summarised below:

	2015 $	2014 $
Trade and other receivables	259,239,500	226,645,968
Cash and cash equivalents	72,802,678	85,581,677
Total	332,042,178	312,227,645

The age of trade and other receivables past due but not impaired is as follows:

	2015 $	2014 $
Not more than 3 months	228,966,015	129,584,281
More than 3 months but not more than 6 months	14,064,196	35,643,048
More than 6 months but not more than 1 year	12,450,480	11,618,693
More than 1 year	3,758,809	33,654,796
Total	259,239,500	210,500,818

The company does not require collateral or other credit enhancements in respect of trade and other receivables.

c Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the company will encounter difficulty in meeting its commitments associated with financial liabilities.

The company manages its liquidity risk by carefully monitoring its cash outflow needs for day-to-day business and maintaining an appropriate level of resources in liquid or near liquid form to meet its needs. The company maintains cash and short-term deposits for up to three months or less to meet its liquidity requirements.

The company's financial liabilities comprise borrowings and trade and other payables. These amounts are due as follows:

	Current	Non current
	Within12 Months $	2 to 5 Years $	Later than 5 Years $
Borrowings	56,895,560	225,434,207	17,166,665
Trade and other payables	222,476,505	**-	**-
Total	279,372,065	225,434,207	17,166,665

This compares to the maturity of the company's financial liabilities in the previous reporting period as follows:

The above contractual maturities reflect the gross cash flows, which may differ from the carrying values of the liabilities at the end of the reporting period.

	Current	Non current
	Within12 Months $	2 to 5 Years $	Later than 5 Years $
Borrowings	30,340,000	33,352,008	10,000,000
Trade and other payables	151,870,765	-	-
Total	182,210,765	33,352,008	10,000,000
